All those who had filled the Google form in March 2022 should also fill the Google form again.

3. Tej Travels, Transport Vendor will arrange for a help desk in school premises from next week. The details will be shared later. Parents are requested not to give calls to teachers regarding transport.

Some of the Parents have expressed the difficulty in dropping and picking their children from school. School is giving following options to parents for the month of April 2022.

1. Parents from same society / nearby societies can go with car pooling. All such parent should submit an application with school office.
If in case parents are asking their friends / neighbour / relative to pick their child from the school should submit an application accordingly.
2. Students of higher standards, Grade VIII onwards who stay nearby can come by bicycle. Parents need to submit consent form with the office.
3. Parents can avail private transport facility for April / Term-1. They should submit the details with the school office.
4. If parents cannot pick and drop their child to school and finding a difficulty to go ahead with either of above three options can send a request for online classes through the attached link latest by 7th April 2022, 8pm.
